Get in on America's "Shark Tank" type investing that you have been left out of...except for watching it on TV!!

Dear Investor:

Many financial advisors are directing their clients to reduce their stock market portfolio and instead invest in private not public “alternatives,” such as private businesses.

If you believe in the great American entrepreneurial spirit, you’ll realize that today the very best potential profit opportunities are no longer reserved exclusively in the stock market or for Wall Street insiders.

You have probably watched many of today’s interesting up-and-coming entrepreneur opportunities on popular television shows like “Shark Tank,” “The Profit,” and “West Texas Investors Club,” and you are unfortunately only invited to watch but never participate.

Have you found yourself sitting in front of one of these “Shark Tank” type shows with your emotions beginning to bubble up? You’re probably saying to yourself something like, “I love that idea, and I’d like to consider investing with that guy or gal!”

Well, investing in what you see on TV is reserved only for celebrity elites...that is, until now. As I’m sure you probably already know, it can be frustrating watching all of those interesting entrepreneur opportunities slip by on these television shows, and wanting to get in their game but knowing you can’t...except now you absolutely CAN!

Let me explain.

I know you most likely have heard your whole life that it takes money to make money. Well, the same holds true for raising money, too. It takes money to make money, and most entrepreneurs don’t have the money they need to use the JOBS Act or to engage in crowdfunding.

And that has created a powerful profit opportunity.

My name is Michael Fugler and I’d like to show you a newly created “Bridge Fund” that finally provides a new investment opportunity for you to personally get in on interesting entrepreneur opportunities. At the same time, our fund helps entrepreneurs build companies and create American jobs!

It’s called the Angel Investors Network Bridge Fund #1 and it allows you to participate in helping to finance some of America’s brightest entrepreneurial minds, with reduced risk and lots of upside opportunity. Significant returns are possible with an additional bonus upside!

I work with some fantastic partners who help find the best opportunities and have structured the fund’s bridge loans process to minimize risk and maximize the upside potential.

In fact, right now our highest profile partner is Kevin Harrington, one of the original sharks from the “Shark Tank” television program and inventor of the Infomercial. Kevin has been responsible for over $5 billion in sales generated from his infomercial products alone.

Another trusted advisor on my team is Greg Writer, the CEO and founder of the Angel Investors Network. This organization is a dynamic and growing network of professional investors who offer access to deal flow, as well as the relationships they’ve already established, and who will help in the success of our fund investments.

You are no longer relegated to being merely a “hypothetical TV armchair investor” anymore! This is your invitation to directly get in on the action and become a participant. See what Kevin and Greg are doing, get their commentary, give us your feedback and be part of the team!

See inside for more details, including...

- 7 surprising reasons why the Angel Investors Network Bridge Fund #1 is making bridge loans to private entrepreneurial companies today
- How the Angel Investors Network Bridge Fund #1 helps companies prosper...and helps you cash in!

You can keep watching television programs all day long if you like, and wishing you could participate with the entrepreneurs you see who face the Sharks, but also realizing full well you can’t do anything about it...or instead you can do something about it and go to this landing page www.Angel-Network.com/BridgeFund to throw your hat in the ring, or call 1-760-233-2860 and apply to be on the team and a part of America’s great entrepreneurial boom!

Support America’s Entrepreneurs and create American jobs!

All the best!

How the Angel Investors Network Bridge Fund #1 Works:

- STEP 1 Properly identify and vet worthy companies through our team of advisors and proven systems, including our new “Mastermind Investing Process”.
- STEP 2 The fund enters into a short-term bridge loan and/or creatively structured investment agreement with the entrepreneur, which funds an event or the marketing to investors to raise the capital needed to execute their business plan. The bridge loan seeks some form of security or collateral as may be available to mitigate or reduce the risk for investors in the fund, and will often include an equity kicker where applicable.
- STEP 3 The entrepreneur engages the Angel Investors Network teams to guide the opportunity.
- STEP 4 The event occurs or new investors respond to the structured opportunity and the fund is repaid its bridge loan, together with interest, fees and a structured bonus.

The Bridge Fund’s Team in their previous capacities did not have the opportunity to provide you access to these inside deals. Today, that is going to change and you are invited to see and experience investment opportunities that usually never reach the street or your door-step. You will participate first hand with structures you may have never seen nor heard of.

Welcome aboard to the “opportunity train” with seating now available to high net worth individuals, family offices, small investment funds, smaller VCs and Private Investment Capital.

About Michael Fugler

Invest Alongside Millionaire-Maker Michael Fugler... One of America's Leading Entrepreneur Builders

Michael Fugler is considered a "Millionaire Maker" in the world of business. In a room of entrepreneurs, investors, investment bankers and money managers, Michael has an important and trusted voice with a sixth sense for discovering unrealized business potential and has a talent for building instant creative visualization.

These key attributes, and his tell-it-like-it-is personality, are highly respected among his peers, as well as with his many famous colleagues and friends in the business world.

As an influential voice in the world of entrepreneur investment, Michael has turned many up-and-coming entrepreneurial ventures into highly-funded and successful enterprises. An entrepreneur makeover by Michael Fugler can transform a business into a success story...and turn fledgling entrepreneurs into millionaires.

His life's work has been firmly entrenched in mentoring thousands of entrepreneurs, raising hundreds of millions of dollars, advising on mergers and acquisitions and matching up eager and investment-hungry entrepreneurs with savvy investors to create deals, and make collaborations take hold and flourish.

Michael has a passion for helping to encourage entrepreneurialism in America, creating American jobs, and taking smaller emerging businesses and early stage companies, like contestants in a variety of industry sectors and guiding them forward into greatness.

Like your coach, advisor, investment banker, attorney and entrepreneur investment expert Michael Fugler has seen success and entrepreneurship defined many ways over the years. Is it only the power suits and college degrees or is it turtlenecks and sneakers? Will only a chosen few reach success, or is there another uncharted path into the Winner's Circle?

Having over four decades of guiding and advising investment capital, coaching, speaking, mentoring entrepreneurs on building companies, representing clients, and in-the-trenches business experience. Michael's view is radically different. He recognizes and teaches that entrepreneurship is a choice, and that it's not for everyone...but if it's your dream, then Michael is the man with the answers and will plot out the best path to get you all the way to the top. Investors that have participated in creatively structured opportunities designed by Michael have often experienced huge upside in realistic timeframes.

Michael is often called a "creative critical thinker" because of his ability to read a person, or a unique given situation, and immediately see the unseen path to success. While he is known for his tell-it-like-it-is attitude, his fusion of real-life experience and intuition together allows him to connect with his clients on an intimate, intense, and highly-effective level.

Many people call Michael the "Millionaire Maker" because of his ability to structure deals and create real value from them.

ValueRich magazine called Michael the "IPO Mixologist" because of his ability to put together and lead an IPO in ways few of his peers could accomplish.

Michael works with some of the best and brightest in the entrepreneur world and is now matching investment opportunities with them.

Rick Smith, CEO of Taser (NASDAQ: TASR) said, "I would fire everyone else and let Michael take over."

Chris Reed, CEO of Reed's (NYSE: REED) said, "Michael could tell our story as good as me and connect with the investors personally. They trust him because he tells it like it is!"

Michael's many other clients also personally believe in his expertise and advice, and tell him and others repeatedly how much they are blown away by his ability to collaborate and effectively guide them, as well as by the extreme benefits they have received as a bottom line result.

Regardless of what you've heard or read in stories about the health of our financial markets, it's Michael's belief that the economy has not recovered. Banks and traditional funding sources are not opening up, entrepreneurs are stymied, capital is not readily available and that additional money is still needed to pay for the cost of raising larger funding. Despite optimistic claims from our politicians and industry pundits, investment teams have continued to see more and more regulatory burdens pressing down on entrepreneurs. As a result these added pressures have created a demand for new innovations towards raising capital and growing resources.
